GOV. FLETCHER'S Campaign Methods!

Senator Page is receiving a large number of letters insisting that he meet Gov. Fletcher on his own level and attack him on his many vulnerable points.

He has received offers of facts concerning both the public and private record of the Governor which are claimed to be damaging in the extreme.

In every case these offers have been declined with the assurance that Senator Page would not descend to this method of campaigning.

GOV. FLETCHER SEEMS TO BELIEVE THAT IN ORDER TO BUILD UP HIS OWN SENATORIAL FORTUNES HE MUST TEAR DOWN AND DESTROY SENATOR PAGE.

He forgets that Senator Page has always lived in Vermont—that commencing in 1869 as a Representative from Hyde Park, re-elected in 1870; elected a State Senator in 1874; a member of the Republican State Committee from 1872 to 1889, and its Chairman from 1885 to 1889; as Bank Examiner from 1884 to 1888; as Governor from 1890 to 1892; and as United States Senator from 1908 to 1916, he has been continuously in the lime-light in public service to such an extent that the people of Vermont have formed an opinion as to his integrity and ability which cannot be undermined and destroyed in a few brief weeks of political advertising.

Gov. Fletcher forgets that Governor Page has been dealing with the people of Vermont in a business way all these years and that his reputation for integrity and square dealing, whether good or bad, cannot be changed in a day.

GOV. FLETCHER WILL BE PERMITTED TO ENJOY A COMPLETE MONOPOLY OF HIS INDIANA METHODS OF CAMPAIGNING. SENATOR PAGE WILL NOT DESCEND TO THIS LEVEL.

Gov. Fletcher will find that Senator Page's many Vermont friends will be prompt to resent his abuse and excellent judges say that the Senator's vindication is as certain to come at the primary September 12th as the sun is to rise and set.

Senator Page is now receiving many letters assuring him that the reaction against Governor Fletcher's questionable campaign methods has already set in, but be that as it may, the Senator is quite content to trust his vindication to the people of Vermont. They know that his business interests are all in Vermont; that every fibre of his being is loyal to his native state and always will be; that despite the malicious attempt to injure the Bank of which he is President, it is an institution of which Vermont is justly proud.

They know that his calfskin business has brought hundreds of thousands of dollars to Vermont, and that because of this business another industry in which Vermont leads has been added to the list.

Whether Vermonters are or are not proud of their former Governor and Junior United States Senator, may in the mind of Gov. Fletcher be a matter of doubt. That Gov. Fletcher has, by his attempts to blacken the character of Senator Page, taken the surest possible method to determine that fact, no sane man can doubt. Senator Page is quite willing to await the arrival of Sept. 12th to receive Vermont's verdict relative to the introduction of Gov. Fletcher's Indiana methods into Vermont State politics.

A RICH AFFIDAVIT

As a sample of the campaign methods by which Gov. Fletcher hopes to reach the United States Senate, it may be stated that there is now being slyly circulated through the state an affidavit made by one Arthur M. Rich—a discharged clerk of Senator Page—to the effect that when this young man was in Senator Page's official employ in Washington the Senator took from him a portion of his salary, and put it in his own pocket.

Letters have already been received by Senator Page calling his attention to this precious concoction in the counties of Orleans, Essex and Windham and the probabilities are that it has been circulated throughout the state. Senator Page has twice sent to the office of Williams & Smith of Newport for a copy of the Rich affidavit, but has been unsuccessful in securing it. That the affidavit is absolutely false the Senator states unqualifiedly and that indisputable documentary proof to show its falsity is now in his hands.

This affidavit has a most interesting history. The call sent out to young Rich to come to Vermont to make this affidavit was sent by one of the firm of Williams & Smith. Of this fact, there is absolute proof. It was executed in the law office of Williams & Smith at Newport, the political headquarters of Allen M. Fletcher in Orleans County. The affidavit was sworn to before B. M. Spooner, a clerk in the office of Williams & Smith.

Incidentally it might be mentioned that the senior partner of this Newport law firm is Bank Commissioner Williams, whose arraignment of the management of Senator Page's Hyde Park bank recently occupied nearly a full page in every paper in Vermont and cost Gov. Fletcher over $3,000—enough to buy a good farm.

CHURCHMEN TALK MEXICO

Further Definition of Their Opinion Given Yesterday

BUSINESS SESSIONS HELD IN MORNING

Mass Meeting and Banquet Last Night—Wage Discussion

New York, Aug. 23.—Views of some of the leading priests and laymen of the Catholic church upon the situation in Mexico, received further definition yesterday in the conventions here of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, the Catholic Young Men's National union and the German Catholic Central Verein. The annual report of Michael J. Slattery as president of the young men's organization which was presented yesterday dealt with the condition of the Catholic church in Mexico. Mr. Slattery spent 15 years as a mining engineer in that country.

Successes of the central powers in the European war was attributed by Rev. F. Betten, S. J., to the ability of the Teutonic mind to assimilate knowledge, in an address before the German Roman Catholic Central Verein, on "Knowledge Is Power."

"How is it that the central powers have been able not only to maintain themselves but even to conquer wide countries from their enemies? Was it muscular power that made it possible? Was it money? No, because both in abundance was represented in the armies of the allies. It was the German head, the German brain, or rather what was and is in this head and brain."

Father Betten appealed for more education among Catholic Germans in this country.

Bishop Currier of Cuba addressed the German delegates on Mexican affairs and in the course of his remarks said:

"Everything that is dearest to the heart of Catholics in Mexico has been desecrated by ruffians. Our government is fraternizing with Villa and Carranza and is causing our church a great injustice."

The delegates adopted a resolution asking the passage of the Kern-McGilluddy federal employees' compensation bill and copies were telegraphed to President Wilson and to the minority and majority leaders in the Senate.

Business sessions of the federation and its allied organizations were held yesterday morning, when some of the subjects discussed in the reports of Pres. Joseph Frey of the Verein, and of Anthony Matre, secretary of the federation, were taken up. Mr. Matre in his report Monday criticized some of the features of modern life which he regarded as evil, including phases of the moving picture business, easy divorces, improper plays and attacks on Christianity. A women's session of the federation was a feature of the morning program.

Last night there was a mass meeting under the auspices of the central Verein, and the young men's union attended a banquet and listened to addresses by officials of the union and others.

McLEMORE TRIES AGAIN TO STOP THE ALLIES' MUNITIONS

Would Empower President to Place an Embargo on Arms to Any Country Disregarding International Law.

Washington, Aug. 23.—A concurrent resolution to empower the president to place an embargo on war munitions and all other exports as he may deem proper, destined for any foreign country which knowingly disregarded international law and violates neutrality rights with the United States, was introduced yesterday by Representative McLemore of Texas and referred to the foreign affairs committee.

SHIPPING BILL HITS A SNAG.

Republican Opposition in House Endangers the Measure.

Washington, Aug. 23.—The administration ship bill got a setback yesterday in the House.

When Chairman Alexander of the merchant marine committee moved to concur in the Senate amendments, Representative Greene of Massachusetts objected and announced he would make the point of no quorum if Mr. Alexander persisted.

This would mean recalling all the absentees.

The final passage of the bill now depends on some agreement to remove the Republican opposition or assemble a Democratic majority.

The so-called anti-blacklist provision in the administration ship bill authorizing customs officials to withhold clearance to any ship refusing American cargo except for the reason of being fully laden, has attracted the attention of the allied embassies, and they are making inquiries which may result in representations to the state department.

BASEBALL BRIEFS

First Baseman Ness of the White Sox, a heavy hitter, is laid up with a broken finger.

Eddie Collins is battling at the lowest mark that he has ever battled in his career. At the present time he is chipping the ball at a .287 clip.

The Tigers are not out of the American league race as yet. Jennings is getting a new brand of pitching.

The Pirates intend to play Hans Wagner at first base next year. He will be the last of the old guard.

Eddie Cicotte has beaten the Yankees five times this year. His knuckle ball seems to be a jinx to Donovan's pets. Pitcher Middleton, who will join the Giants at the end of the American association season from the Louisville team, recently worked in 46 consecutive innings without allowing a score.

Billy Meyer, catcher for the Athletics, who was taken sick with appendicitis while the team was in St. Louis, has recovered so that he has left the hospital and gone to his home in Knoxville, Tenn.

Myer expects to join the team in September. Fritz Maizel has commenced to do a little light work at the second station. When his throwing arm is a little stronger, Donovan intends to put him on the middle bag. Maizel ought to be a success at this important position.

The St. Louis Browns have their eyes on a new shortstop, who is proving a sensation in his first year out. The player is Harold Horkheimer, who is playing with Bridgeport, his home town, in the Eastern league. He formerly played with a shop team in Bridgeport and got such a reputation around his home that the club signed him about a month ago. Coach Charley Ketchner gave him a good recommendation to the Browns.

Of last year's Cubs, who finished in fourth place under the management of Roger Bresnahan, Tinker has traded or sold Schultz, Phelan, Fisher, Good, Pierce and Humphries. He is also ready to get rid of Archer, Saier and Zimmerman.

Roger Peckinpaugh is the best shortstop in the majors, bar nobody, writes a New York scribe in a recent article on the Yankees. A Boston writer says: "We'll freely admit that Peck is some shortstop, but we wonder if that writer ever put much thought on Doney Bush, Ray Chapman, Rabbit Maranville, Buck Herzog, or even young Witt of the Athletics."

The Mackmen played an exhibition game in Newark, O., recently, when Pincich, their young catcher, drove a long fly to center, the ball hitting on the top of Outfielder Nutter's head and bounding over the fence, thus yielding a novel home run.
